

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

B. A. ENGLISH

Programme Outcomes

After completing B. A. English Programme students will able to:

- PO1: Develop multidisciplinary academic foundation
- PO2: Demonstrate wide knowledge in the humanities and social sciences that is fairly sufficient to expose them to numerous job opportunities.
- PO3: Sharpen students social analytical skills to enable them participate in liberating peoples and communities from all forms of bondage.
- PO4: Skill and train Graduates, who are able to teach, do research and handle social responsibilities in private and public enterprises.
- PO5: Develop ability to analyze, synthesize and integrate knowledge and capabilities to evaluate the validity of arguments and conclusion.
- PO6: Increase social interaction with society and intercede the disagreement and help to reach conclusion in group discussion, demonstrate intellectual awareness and competencies. Respect ones' cultural identity and values.
- PO7: Well informed about the value system, moral dimensions and responsibilities towards the Nation and Society.
- PO8: Demonstrate personal and intellectual integrity and academic accountability likewise collaborate respectfully with others, individually and in teams.
- PO9: Sound knowledge of the issues and problems of environment and sustainability development.
- PO10: Acquire the ability to engage in independent and lifelong learning in broad context of socio-technological changes.

Programme Specific Outcomes

- PSO1: Students will be able appreciate, construe and comprehend the major and minor forms of English literature.
- PSO2: Students will have developed a leaning towards English literature and language.
- PSO3: Students will be well informed about the literary theories, terms and concepts in criticism and able to apply the critical theories.
- PSO4: Will be able to use English Language effectively in formal and informal communications.

PSO5: Students will be able to write creatively.

PSO6: Students will have strengthened confidence to face the challenges thus getting jobs in the corporate and government sectors.

COURSE OUTCOMES

F.Y. B.A English

Course: 11011 Compulsory English

After successfully completing this course students will be able to:

- CO1: Compare and contrast character within prose and poetry.
- CO2: Use correct English grammar in writing and speaking
- CO3: Identify the themes of the prose and poetry.
- CO4: Enumerate various aspects of Prose and Poetry.
- CO5: Will have developed rudimentary communicative abilities.

Course: 11331 Additional English

After successfully completing this course students will be able to:

- CO1: Detect and categorize various types of literature.
- CO2: Explicate poems and enumerate literary devices used in the poems.
- CO3: Appreciate and appraise short story as a form of literature.
- CO4: Evaluate and discuss prose lessons.
- CO5: Explain the elements of one act play.
- CO6: Comment on sound system of the English Language.
- CO7: Instill literary leaning amongst students which will lead them to procure pleasure by reading the prescribed texts.

S.Y.B.A English

Course: 2017 Compulsory English

After successfully completing this course students will be able to:

- CO1: Elucidate different types of characters, situations and moral lessons of life.
- CO2: Encapsulate the themes of prose and poetry succinctly.
- CO3: Describe various aspects of Speech.
- CO4: Classify and transform various types of sentences and apply vocabulary in communication.
- CO5: Communicate in grammatically correct language in everyday conversation.
- CO6: Write letters, essays and reports.

Course: 2337 General II Study of English Language and Literature

After successfully completing this course students will be able to:

- CO1: Comment upon historical development of short story.
- CO2: Define different elements of short story such as plot, characters, setting etc.
- CO3: Classify literary devices
- CO4: Collate and differentiate various forms of short stories.
- CO5: Cite and itemized various organs of speech and transcribe words into the phonetic script.
- CO6: Encapsulate and exemplify diverse intonation pattern and dialects of English Language.

Course: 2338 Special I Appreciating Drama

After successfully completing this course students will be able to:

- CO1: Expound Drama as an important form of literature and encapsulate various aspects of drama.
- CO2: Describe and discuss various types of drama.
- CO3: Comment on the historical development of Drama.
- CO4: Enunciate different scenes and acts of drama on their own.
- CO5: Compare and contrast varied characters of Drama.
- CO6: Construe drama from various thematic points of view.
- CO7: To nurture literary proclivity of students towards drama and derive pleasure by reading plays.
- CO8: Assess the prescribed plays by categorizing their types.

Course: 2339 Special II Appreciating Poetry

After successfully completing this course students will be able to:

- CO1: Discuss the historical development of poetry
- CO2: Comment upon the various elements of poetry.
- CO3: Identify the various literary devices in the poem.
- CO4: Encapsulate the various types of poetry.
- CO5: Enunciate different figures of speech.
- CO6: Recapitulate the poem.
- CO7: Analyze and appreciate the poem.

T. Y. B. A. ENGLISH

COURSE: 3017 Compulsory English

After successfully completing this course, students will be able to:

- CO1: Comment upon the verbal and non-verbal communication.
- CO2: Summarize prose and poetry.
- CO3: Discuss the characters and themes of short story.
- CO4: Prepare and present the presentation
- CO5: Differentiate between the declarative, interrogative and imperative sentences.
- CO6: Communicate in grammatically correct English.

Course 3337 General III Advanced Study of English Language and Literature

After successfully completing this course students will be able to:

- CO1: Comment upon various aspect of linguistic study.
- CO2: Describe and discuss Syntax, Semantics and Pragmatics.
- CO3: Illustrate Speech Act theory.
- CO4: Well informed about the various kinds of meanings of words.
- CO5: Aware of different types of sentences and structure of sentences.
- CO6: Encapsulate varied dialects of Indian Poetry.
- CO7: Compare and Contrast between Indian Poetic style and Other Poetic style.
- CO8: Construe the poem from varied cultural points of view.
- CO9: Familiarized with the distinguished art of Indian English Poetry.

Course: 3338 Special III Appreciating Novel

After successfully completing this course students will be able to:

- CO1: Give account of rise of English novel
- CO2: Encapsulate varied types of novels.
- CO3: Enumerate various elements of Novel.
- CO4: Comment upon the narrative technique of the novel.
- CO5: Compare and contrast the characters of prescribed novels of the syllabus.
- CO6: Construe novel from social, historical and political background.

Course: 3339 Special IV Introduction to Literary Criticism

After successfully completing this course students will be able to:

- CO1: Give Account of the birth of Literary Criticism.
- CO2: Encapsulate the various critical theories developed by the critics.
- CO3: Briefly describe the various Critical Terms.
- CO4: Apply critical theories to the prose and poems.
- CO5: Compare and contrast various critical theories.

S. Y. B. Sc.

Course: Optional English

After successfully completing this course students will be able to:

- CO1: Compose and draft letters, essays and reports
- CO2: Recapitulate prose and poetry.
- CO3: Employ vocabulary in everyday conversation
- CO4: Transform the different types of sentences.
- CO5: Communicate competently in day to day life.

M.A. English

Programme Outcomes

After successfully completing M. A. English Programme students will be able to:

- PO1: Demonstrate and employ an appropriate level to expertize in literary history, literary theory and rhetoric.
- PO2: Practice high-level proficiency in literary research and in the synthesis of research.
- PO3: Critically analyze skills in the interpretation and evaluation of literary texts.
- PO4: Demonstrate a command over written academic English, including the abilities to...
 - a. Organize and present material in a cogent fashion
 - b. Formulate and defend original argument
 - c. Employ effectively the language of their discipline
 - d. Write under time constraints.
- PO4: Develop abilities to think and comprehend in English language.
- PO5: Enhance their application and understanding of culturally diverse society
- PO6: Through a close interaction with literary or creative works which portray a diverse range of human thought, emotion and experience, learners gained knowledge and understanding of the nature of human existence and of the world and the society in which they live.
- PO7: Identify complexities of human psyche through various themes and genres of literature which will lead in deep understanding of human values such as righteousness, morality, propriety, correctness and more importantly respect towards women.
- PO8: Well informed to the issues related to environment and steps needed to be implemented for its sustainability through the study of Eco-Critical texts.
- PO9: Perform their duties and aware of their obligation and role towards nation and nation building thus creating a law abiding and responsible citizen.

Programme Specific Outcomes

- PSO1: Students will be acquainted to the historical development of English Literature.
- PSO2: Students will be able to perceive the literary pieces of Indian and American Literature.
- PSO3: Students will be able to employ the knowledge of English to enhance Listening,

Speaking, Reading and Writing skills.

PSO4: Students will be able expound on the theories of literature and language.

Course Outcomes

Paper- 1: English Literature from 1550-1798

On completing the course, students will be able to:

- CO1: Encapsulate about the growth and decline of English Drama in the said period.
- CO2: Expound the master pieces of 16th, 17th Period
- CO3: Well acquainted with the salient features of various Ages of English Literature.
- CO4: Recapitulate prescribed text of the syllabus.
- CO5: Relate to the human values perceived through the literary text.
- CO6: Identify and discuss the literary devices employed in a text.

Paper- 2: English Literature from 1798 to Present

On completing the course, students will be able to:

- CO1: Construe and comment upon the literary master pieces by its genres.
- CO2: Expound the understanding of the Novel.
- CO3: Comment upon the narrative technique likewise varied elements employed in the novel.
- CO4: Discuss the changes taken place in the art of poetry writing.
- CO5: Compare and contrast the poets and their creative philosophies.
- CO6: Explicate the literary texts independently.

Paper- 3: Contemporary Studies in English Language

On completing the course, students will be able to:

- CO1: Employ linguistic sub-disciplines of linguistic.
- CO2: Acquire knowledge of the structure of language through diverse critical and theoretical point of views.
- CO3: Identify various sub-disciplines of linguistics.
- CO4: Employ linguistic theories to the study of language.
- CO5: Encapsulate the role of language in communication skill.

Paper- 4: Literary Criticism ad Theory

On completing the course, students will be able to:

- CO1: Expound the meaning, nature and scope of literary criticism and theory.
- CO2: Comment upon the various stages of Literary Criticism.
- CO3: Compare and contrast between Classical and Modern Criticism.
- CO4: Apply the various critical approaches to the literary texts.
- CO5: Comprehend the literary texts and derive aesthetic pleasure.
- CO6: Enumerate the impact of social, political, economical and historical theories and movements on the literary texts.

Paper- 5: Indian Writing in English

On completing the course, students will be able to:

- CO1: Illustrate the various aspects of Indian English Literature.
- CO2: Scrutinize a literary piece from social, cultural and political perspective.
- CO3: Well informed about the renowned writers of Indian English Literature.
- CO4: Comment upon the impact of colonialism on Indian Writers.
- CO5: Compare and appreciate the innovative use of English language by Indian Writers.
- CO6: Explicit and expound the salient features of Indian Fiction.

Paper- 6: English Language Learning and Teaching

On completing the course, students will be able to:

- CO1: Manifest skills of language teaching in the Indian education scenario.
- CO2: Describe the various areas of ELLT.
- CO3: Conduct a comparative study of language and literature in ELLT.
- CO4: Understand the major issues in ELLT in the Indian context.
- CO5: Associate different approaches, methods and techniques to the teaching English language and literature.
- CO6: Propose innovative methods for ELLT.

Paper- 7: American Literature

On completing the course, students will be able to:

- CO1: Familiarized with the various literary movements of American Literature.
- CO2: Expound the Modern American Drama.
- CO3: Compare and contrast the American literature to the British Literature.

- CO4: Discuss the distinctive features of American Fiction.
- CO5: Comment upon the diverse aspect of American Poetry.
- CO6: Exemplify the significance of African-American sentiments in American Literature.
- CO7: Explicate and discuss a literary piece independently.
- CO8: Enumerate the impact of social changes on American Literature.

Paper- 8: Research Methodology

On completing the course, students will be able to:

- CO1: Define the meaning, nature and scope of research.
- CO2: Familiarize with various stages involved in research.
- CO3: Describe the steps of research process.
- CO4: Encapsulate the various methods of data collections.
- CO5: Comment upon the types of thesis and format of thesis.
- CO6: Apply the various citation methods.
- CO7: Prepare and present Research Paper and Proposal.
- CO8: Undertake Research Work confidently.

