A one-day workshop on "Restructuring Curriculum for MA I (Urdu Persian)" was successfully organized through the collaborative efforts of Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir's Arts, Science & Commerce College, Malegaon (Camp), the Board of Studies Persian/Arabic & Urdu at Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune, and Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir's Arts, Science & Commerce College, Malegaon City. The workshop aimed to foster discussions among educators, scholars, and stakeholders to propose innovative changes in the curriculum structure.

Inauguration:

The workshop commenced with an inaugural session, graced by the presence of Dr C.G. Dighavkar, Principal of Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir's M.S.G. Arts, Science & Commerce College, Malegaon (Camp). Dr Arif Anjum Principal Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir's Arts, Science & Commerce College, Malegaon City Dr Arif Anjum emphasised the significance of adapting the curriculum to the changing educational landscape and fostering an environment of continuous improvement. Dr Sajid Ansari Introduce Resource Persons and Welcomed them as well as Dr Sajid presented the aims and objectives of the programme. Anchoring was done by Dr Shaheena.

Sessions and Discussions:

Keynote Address by Dr Azmat Dalal:

The workshop began with an enlightening keynote address by Dr Azmat Dalal (Abeda Inamdar Sr. College of ASC, Pune), a distinguished scholar. Dr Dalal discussed the historical importance and contemporary relevance of Urdu-Persian studies. Her address set the tone for the day's discussions on curriculum restructuring.

Curriculum Evaluation and Enhancement: Participants actively engaged in evaluating the existing curriculum's strengths and shortcomings. This interactive session provided a platform for open dialogue on the curriculum's scope and alignment with academic and professional demands.

Emerging Trends in Urdu Persian Studies: Dr Uzma Tasneem (Director of DMI Research Institute, Pune) shared insights into emerging trends within the Urdu Persian field, such as digital humanities and cultural studies. Participants discussed how these trends could enrich the curriculum and better cater to the needs of modern students.

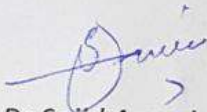

Effective Curriculum Design Principles: Dr Fahmeeda Ansari (HOD Department of Urdu, JAT ASC College (For Women), Malegaon) elaborated on effective curriculum design principles, focusing on student-centric methodologies and outcome-based education. The discussion stressed the importance of aligning the curriculum with contemporary career courses.

Brainstorming Breakout Groups: Attendees collaborated in breakout groups to brainstorm and propose specific changes to the curriculum. These sessions encouraged collective creativity and generated innovative ideas for curriculum restructuring.

Panel Discussion: The workshop concluded with a panel discussion featuring Dr Azmat Dalal, Dr Uzma Tasneem, Dr Fahmeeda Ansari, and other esteemed scholars. The panellists deliberated on the practical implications of proposed curriculum changes, highlighting the need to equip students with skills relevant to real-world challenges.

Acknowledgement:

The organizers extend sincere gratitude to the participants, esteemed keynote speakers Dr Azmat Dalal, Dr Uzma Tasneem, Dr Fahmeeda Ansari, and all scholars for their valuable contributions. Special recognition goes to Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir's M.S.G Arts, Science & Commerce College, Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir's Arts, Science & Commerce College Malegaon City and Savitribai Phule Pune University for their collaborative efforts in making this workshop a success.
